

I WAS DENIED AN APARTMENT FOR NOT HAVING 3X THE RENT, EVEN THOUGH I HAVE A VOUCHER.

When a landlord tried to deny me housing because of my housing voucher (e.g., Section 8), I contacted FHAM and learned about my fair housing rights. For instance, if you can afford an apartment with your voucher, then a landlord cannot deny you just because your income is less than three times the total rent. If you believe you have experienced discrimination, contact FHAM and file a complaint.
